The Coming Democratic-Rebei Pow-Wow!

Before snother week shall have rolled its current of events into the dark stream of the Past, the motley crew of Rebels, Bushwhackers, Democrats, Conservatives, Copperbeads, White Man's Party, which has been atrangling and struggling against the " raging ele menta" of loyelty for the past six months, like a drawning man on the verge of Niagara, will have met, mingled, naw and-fizzled; And, of all the parties which will be represented, on the fourth of July, in the city of New York, that but bed of treason, we consider the straight-out E-bet party the most hanorable and trustworthy. Stained, as it is with such bloody-handed and murderous by such miscreants as Wade Hampton; defiled as it is by such vile imbecifes as Valdandtpham, the Northern traitor, it yet stands so far ahead of the other conglomerated masses of corruption and deprayity, that it shines smid the darkness surrounding it like the light of the noon-day sun in the depths of a gloomy cavern!

But what mys the straight-out Rebel ? #### Hon. Schuyler Colfax.

Hon. Schuyler Colfax, our candidate for Vice-President-is not only one of the purest and best men, morally, the country can produce, but is endowed with that poble principle-Charity-without which no man Line Whig, a thorough Union man and is can be a devoted Christian. The Rev. Mr. Lozier, who has been personally acquainted We will therefore have Radic-leaft of course with him all his life, said upon one occasion. The fact is, Radicals are the sait of the earth! that he gave the Indiana Sanitary Commission (that poble organization which saved the lives of so many Union soldiers during the war,) the sum of $100; at another time he sent the same aum for a like purpose; and once, on the adjournment of Congress during the war, gave his entire mileage ($600) for the relief of sick and wounded soldlers. Show us a man who has done wrong, bu who, having been convinced of his error, desires by word and deed to retrieve his past short-comings, and we will show you a specimen of benesty worthy of imitation.

The Confederate Generals who augport Grant for the Presidency, on the ground of his bravery, magnanimity, and disinterestedless, present an eloquent contrast to the few Inion Generals who avow their readiness to olo the Copperheads in opposing their old ommander-in-chief.

SELEVAR COURTY, June 30th, 1868. The organized band of midnight assassins, known as the Kukiux Klah, are becoming yery bold and daring in Sullivan County. Some heaven daring, hell deserving robel, was ought to have been killed during the rebellion, and numbered with the borrific legions of pandimonium, has been putting up printed advertisements at Bristol, Blauntville, and other parts of Sullivan county, warning the loyal leagues of the danger to which they are exposed, by telling them that their paths shall be strewn with skulls, and that their bodies shall feast the vultures. That "the atter demolition of loyal leagues will soon take place." New, in order to save blood-shed, and the gates of the infernal-regions from being thrown wider open, I would ust say to those low flung, insignificant diapolical, pusillanimous imps, that their con-fuct will not be tolerated any longer in this county; "forbestance has almost cessed to be a virtue." It would be well for them to remember that the blood of loyal mgo is get staining their garments, and that if the friends of those who were murdered by the will be annihilated to the utmost verge of the astronomical imagination, where they shall blow the sheefs of flame in a more genial Kuklux Kingdom. If the Federal soldier and the loyal citizens of this county are not able to cope with these transgressors of law and order, they have a remedy to which they will soon resort. The day is not far distant when the music of the soldfer's dram will be heard, when the clash of musketry will fall heavily upon the rabel ear. Then, Klukluz, you may ory for mercy, but it will not be extended to sonable breath, will kindle a flame into such furr in these ends of the earth, that the blood of all the tebels in the South will not be sufcient to extinguish it.
